

Western Libyan Gas Project

The scope of work includes the general maintenance services of the Sabratha platform and execution of all maintenance interventions including corrective, preventive, predictive, minor modifications, improvements and extraordinary maintenance and maintenance service for gas turbines with driven equipment sets and gas compressors.

A CMMS tool is utilized to manage the entire process of maintenance, from need definition to the activity execution and close out/registration.

GreyStar is responsible for the maintenance of the Sabratha platform production facilities.

The classification of personnel being provided to the project include:

- Team Leaders
- Supervisors
- Maintenance Engineers
- Materials Managers
- Machinery Engineers
- Mechanical Engineers
- Electrical Engineers
- Instrument Engineers
- Safety Managers
- Maintenance Technicians
- Crafts

